ABSTRACT

This is the second of two volumes telling the story of the author, an influential figure in higher education. This volume tells how the University of California evolved, under Kerr's leadership, into the institution it is today. Part 1, "Introduction," contains: (1) "Politicizing the Ivory Tower." Part 2, "Impacts of McCarthyism," contains: (2) "The Catastrophic Loyalty Oath Controversy"; and (3) "'Un-American' Activities." Part 4, "The Emergence of Youth Uprisings," contains: (4) "Youth Uprisings around the World"; and (5) "The Development of Student Political Movements in the United States." Part 4, "Student Conflict Accelerates at Berkeley," contains: (6) "The Fatal Attractions of the Berkeley Campus"; (7) "The Sproul Directives"; (8) "The Issue of Political Advocacy on Campus"; and (9) "Things Start To Fall Apart." Part 5, "Berkeley, Fall 1964-The FSM Uprising," contains: (10) "The Lighted Match"; (11) "The Conflagration"; and (12) "The Center Holds and Puts Out the Flames." Part 6, "Recovery," contains: (13) "'The Center Starts To Build Back"; and (14) "The Center Coalesces." Part 7, "Backlash," contains: (15) "Reagan and the Regents"; and (16) "The Last Day-Losing Big or Winning Big." Appendixes contain selections from Federal Bureau of Investigation files and a list of documentary supplements. (Contains 274 endnotes.) (SLD)
